2017 Women's History Month Poster Competition Rules

Please read these competition rules carefully before you submit your poster.

THEME: #BeBoldForChange

2015 Diversity Week Second Place
Winner: Ebone Grayson

The UCF community of faculty, students and staff are joining together to celebrate women's history month and to highlight women's achievement and challenges to gender equity. The national women's history month project began in the 1970's; the U.S. Congress declared March as national women's history month in 1987. This effort is intended to promote UCF traditions honoring women faculty, staff, and students, and encourage the entire campus to use March 2017 as a platform for recognizing and improving the lives of women affiliated with our campus.

The Office of Diversity and Inclusion intends to produce a poster for campus distribution that raises awareness of the month's activities. International Women's Day is March 8th. Equal Pay Day is April 4th. The 2017 national history month will honor women in labor and business. We are looking for a poster that recognizes the diversity of women's experience. Poster contributors this year can pick any visuals to convey a national theme (equal pay, women's rights, women in labor and business) or the International Women's Day theme #BeBoldForChange.

AWARDS: Grand Prize - $250, campus and community recognition; online display
